LIFE IN THE FAST LANE

Show off your Red Sox pride! Volvo is rolling out a Boston Red Sox Special Edition C30 to commemorate the Olde Towne Team's 2007 championship season. There are just 107 vehicles available—one for each of the Sox's 2007 wins—so you've got to be fast to snatch one up. All Special Edition C30s are "passion red" with a Red Sox logo affixed to the front fender and another carved into the rear windshield. A plaque signed by Larry Lucchino, Sox president, sits on the dashboard, indicating which of the winning games your C30 celebrates. Prices start at $29,465.

ICING ON THE CAKE

Sweet is "cutie patootie" Courtney Forrester's new Back Bay cupcake boutique, where decadent treats come beautifully wrapped. But buyer beware—there's always an excuse to pack on the pounds in this sugar shack. If you must have your cake and eat it, too, just run an extra few miles during your next workout; it's worth every bite. Sweet, 49 Massachusetts Avenue, 617-247-CAKE; sweetcupcakes.com.

VIVA ITALIA!

Finally, collecting connoisseurs will have a place to call home when Galleria Florentia opens at 79 Newbury Street this summer. A design showroom and boutique, the gallery features sculpture, porcelain pieces, paintings, and furnishings. The works at Galleria Florentia are imported from all over Europe and are beyond beautiful. Call 617-585-9200 or visit galleriaflorentia.com.

Be on the lookout for the new Ross-Simons store, opening in June at the Pru in the former location of Alpha Omega. It offers high-end brands such as Rolex, Tag, Bulgari, and Raymond Weill, so let's hope these owners stick around and don't get caught fleeing the country with the goods!
